We offer a number of purchase options for acquiring our eBooks

Major annual subject collections

We offer major annual subject collections in Law, Business & Management, Economics, Sociology, Social Policy & Education, Geography, Planning & Tourism, Political Science & Public Policy. These are non-overlapping and provide the most cost effective way of acquiring our eBooks.

Subject specific collections

Targeted collections in over 90 different subject areas containing books published from 1994 to the end of last year. These collections include monographs, Handbooks, dictionaries and Research Literature Reviews. 13 of these collections comprise only reference works. Available on perpetual access.

Essentials collections

We have used citation, sales, and Elgaronline usage data to curate these collections of titles that have stood the test of time in key areas of our list. Featuring wide ranges of topics and written by geographically and ideologically diverse selections of our authors, these are essential collections for libraries building well-rounded and comprehensive collections. Containing books published from 1994 to the end of last year.

Handbook collections

Our authoritative Handbooks comprise specially commissioned, peer reviewed, original chapters offering comprehensive analyses of each topic. Our Handbooks are unique in their research focus and, in many cases, the cross disciplinary nature of the topics.

Tailored collections

This model allows you to customise your selection from across our whole eBook list. Pick and choose a minimum of 30 titles from across our list to fit the needs of your library. Tell us your budget, the subject areas you are interested in, or a range of publication dates and we can give you a proposal. Available on perpetual access.

Other purchase options

Encyclopedia

Our Encyclopedia are available as state-of-the-art, stand alone online resources, exclusively on Elgaronline. These digital editions feature a specially-designed interface, powerful search, direct linking to references and unrestricted campus-wide access.

They are not included as part of our annual collections. Available for individual purchase and on perpetual access.

Journals

We have a growing list of peer reviewed, scholarly journals in the social sciences and law, hosted on Elgaronline.

Advanced Introduction to Tourism Economics

David W. Marcouiller, University of Wisconsin-Madison, US

'This book offers insight for both academics and policy makers seeking to understand the tourism phenomenon from a regional economic perspective. Its primary value for scholars is its combination of both demand for (leisure) and supply of (amenities) the tourism product. Policy makers will, on the other hand, benefit from a greater appreciation of the economic effects of tourism, as well as implications for planning.'

Advanced Introduction to Economic Anthropology

Peter D. Little, Emory University, US

'Without neglecting the classics, Peter Little has written an introduction to economic anthropology that tackles the present moment of global capitalism head on. Over a vast range of topics, he juxtaposes ethnographic analysis of the "real economy" with ethical sensitivity. I particularly appreciated the attention paid to informality and trust, global value chains, digital financialization, and to the very language in which people's economic activities are described and thereby constituted.'
