We offer a number of purchase options for acquiring our eBooks

Major annual subject collections

We offer major annual subject collections in Law, Business & Management, Economics, Sociology, Social Policy & Education, Geography, Planning & Tourism, Political Science & Public Policy. These are non-overlapping and provide the most cost effective way of acquiring our eBooks.

Subject specific collections

Targeted collections in over 90 different subject areas containing books published from 1994 to the end of last year. These collections include monographs, Handbooks, dictionaries and Research Literature Reviews. 13 of these collections comprise only reference works. Available on perpetual access.

Essentials collections

We have used citation, sales, and Elgaronline usage data to curate these collections of titles that have stood the test of time in key areas of our list. Featuring wide ranges of topics and written by geographically and ideologically diverse selections of our authors, these are essential collections for libraries building well-rounded and comprehensive collections. Containing books published from 1994 to the end of last year.

Handbook collections

Our authoritative Handbooks comprise specially commissioned, peer reviewed, original chapters offering comprehensive analyses of each topic. Our Handbooks are unique in their research focus and, in many cases, the cross disciplinary nature of the topics.

Tailored collections

This model allows you to customise your selection from across our whole eBook list. Pick and choose a minimum of 30 titles from across our list to fit the needs of your library. Tell us your budget, the subject areas you are interested in, or a range of publication dates and we can give you a proposal. Available on perpetual access.

Practitioner law collections

Our professional law programme includes books to support practising lawyers in their research and day-to-day client work. Our Law and Practice series offers rigorous analysis of substantive law, often covering elements of practice and procedure, and cross border issues. Elgar Commentaries are authoritative reference works, providing detailed interpretation of treaties, regulations and other legislative instruments. Elgar Practical Guides and Elgar Compliance Guides are aimed at those who require applied practical guidance on the procedural, commercial and substantive aspects of their legal work.

The Americanization of European Union Democracy Promotion

Ideology, Diversity, and United States Hegemony

José M. Magone, Berlin School of Economics and Law, Germany

'Professor Magone's excellent new book analyzes the EU's gradual abandonment of its neutral democracy promotion policy. Magone rightly claims that the only way forward is a new form of democracy promotion that is truly neutral, pluralistic, and respectful of the democratization efforts of the EU's neighbors. This compelling book is a must read for policymakers and scholars alike.'

A Research Agenda for Governance

B. Guy Peters, University of Pittsburgh, US, Jon Pierre, University of Gothenburg, Sweden, Eva Sørensen, Roskilde University, Denmark and Nord University, Norway and Jacob Torfing, Roskilde University, Denmark and Nord University, Norway

'This is essential stuff for anyone interested in real processes of governance. If you want to understand how new forms of collaboration with citizens become intertwined with traditional modes of hierarchical governance – and in the challenges this poses for governance practices and governance research – this book is essential. It is also written in easily accessible language while simultaneously drawing on a very rich base of expert knowledge. A fascinating read!'

Teaching Environmental Justice

Practices to Engage Students and Build Community

Edited by Sikina Jinnah, Jessie Dubreuil, Jody Greene and Samara S. Foster, University of California, Santa Cruz, US

'What an absolutely phenomenal resource! Jinnah, Dubreuil, Greene and Foster have pulled together an incredible and diverse collection of experiments, projects, practices, and reflections on teaching environmental justice. There is so much here to motivate, engage, and inspire students – and to address the injustices they face. I can't wait to get it into the classroom.'

Research Handbook on the Politics of Constitutional Law

Edited by Mark Tushnet, Harvard University, US and Dimitry Kochenov, CEU Democracy Institute, Hungary and CEU Department of Legal Studies, Austria

'The law-politics distinction is at once fluid, hard to define and yet crucial to our understanding of constitutional law. This Research Handbook brings together a dazzling array of constitutional thinkers to explore this distinction and in doing so offers valuable insights about constitutional law and politics in a range of jurisdictions world wide. Methodologically and thematically eclectic in scope, it promises to be an essential reference for constitutional lawyers, political scientists and theorists for many years to come.'

The Debt Crisis of the 1980s

Law and Political Economy

Jérôme Sgard, Sciences Po, Paris, France

'This exquisitely timed and important book returns a twice-lost decade to its rightful place in sovereign debt theory and practice. An urge to forget for some combined with endless casual mentions to drain the 1980s of color and meaning in contemporary imagination. In place of generic cutouts of systemic crisis, deadweight loss, oppression, and financial alchemy, Jérôme Sgard offers an original account of institutional ferment, creative agency, and fraught politics at the root of international financial architecture.'

Research Handbook on Migration and Education

Edited by Halleli Pinson, Ben Gurion University of the Negev, Israel, Nihad Bunar, Stockholm University, Sweden and Dymrna Devine, University College Dublin, Ireland

'This superb Research Handbook could not be more welcome. The emergent field of migration and education is handsomely illustrated in the exemplary, original research represented here. Despite investigating so many diverse national contexts, the chapter authors concur that migration of children and youth is today enriching, disrupting and reshaping educational systems globally in ways that demand our attention.'

A Modern History of Maritime Terrorism

From the Fenian Ram to Explosive-Laden Drone Boats

Peter Lehr, University of St Andrews, UK

'Peter Lehr has produced an outstanding book on the history of maritime terrorism. By providing historical insights about our understanding of maritime terrorism with an in-depth analysis of highly interesting contemporary case studies, the book makes a substantial contribution to our understanding of both the historical and empirical dynamics of the phenomenon. Indeed, this is an excellent book which provides a very interesting and compelling analysis of an important and largely under-researched topic.'

Handbook of Public Administration Reform

Edited by Shaun Francis Goldfinch, Independent Scholar

Reform is a politicised, ideological, sometimes drifting, and chaotic process. As such, what public administration reform means, why it occurs, whose interests it serves, and whether it makes the world a better place, remain contested questions. Addressing these questions, this major comparative study sheds new light on existing and emerging issues in the field of public administration reform.

Interlinkages between the Sustainable Development Goals

Edited by Ranjula Bali Swain, Stockholm School of Economics and Södertörn University, Stockholm, Sweden and Yongyi Min, United Nations Secretariat, New York, US

Interlinkages between the Sustainable Development Goals explores the complex relationships between the 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) adopted by 193 United Nations Member States in 2015. The book provides an in-depth analysis of the interconnections between the economic, social, and environmental dimensions of sustainable development and the five pillars of the SDGs: peace, people, planet, prosperity, and partnerships.

Handbook of Public Management in Africa

Edited by Gerrit van der Waldt, North-West University, South Africa

'As much of public management literature is focused on Western countries and their emphasis on efficiency, effectiveness, and economy, this edited volume on African public management is most welcome given its focus on community and consensus-building. To place public management in its political, historical, and cultural context with attention for all government levels is most welcome. Van der Waldt has done Africa and the study of public administration a great service.'

Teaching Social Policy

International, Comparative and Global Perspectives

Edited by Zoë Irving, University of York, UK

'Boosting an excellent array of contributors, this refreshing and insightful guide supports instructors in reimagining and recontextualizing established debates, and asserting the racialised and patriarchal underpinnings of social policy. Whether you are thinking of developing a new course, unit or programme, or updating and revising established material, this text is a "must-read." It is also relevant for all instructors seeking to move the empirical and analytical focus of their teaching beyond national boundaries, thereby increasing the relevance and appeal to a diverse student body.'

Rethinking Nature Relations

Beyond Binaries

E. C. H. Keskitalo, Umeå University, Sweden

'So many environmental problems stem from seeing humans as distinct from nature. This perceptive book critically interrogates the nature-human divide, encouraging us to move beyond binary thinking as a route to environmental wellbeing. All who wrestle with humanity's place on Earth and the intellectual foundations of environmentalism will benefit from this careful and clear-eyed book.'

European Energy Politics

The Green Transition and EU-Russia Energy Relations

Marco Sidi, University of Cagliari, Italy and Finnish Institute of International Affairs, Finland

'This book makes it explicit how profoundly different the EU energy policies of the 2020s are compared to the previous decade, documenting how and why the Union's long-standing relations with Russia came to an end. This will be important to keep in mind in the years to come once EU Member States establish relations with potential hydrogen suppliers.'
